Dear Mr. Dempsey:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act request, received by the Civil Rights Division on February 21, 2012, for referrals sent to the U.S. Department of Justice for Title IX Amendments to the Education Act.

After a thorough search, I have determined that the Civil Rights Division has no records pertaining to an investigation or case against referrals sent to the U.S. Department of Justice for Title IX Amendments to the Education Act.

Should you wish to appeal my decision with respect to your request, you may do so by writing, within sixty days, to the Director, Office of Information and Privacy, United States Department of Justice, 1425 New York Ave., NW, Suite 11050 Washington, DC 20530-0001. Your appeal must be received by OIP within 60 days of the date of this letter. The envelope should be marked "FOI/PA Appeal." Following review by the Department, judicial review of the decision of the Attorney General is available in the United States District Court in the judicial district in which you reside, in which you have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia.

I hope the Civil Rights Division has been of some assistance to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Nelson D. Hermilla, Chief

RE: FOIA Request No. 12-01098-F

Dear Mr. Dempsey:

This letter is a final response to your e-mail dated March 28, 2012 requesting information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552. Your request was received in this office on March 28, 2012. Your request has been assigned to the following office within the Department to search for responsive records: Office of Civil Rights (OCR). You requested the following information:

Any public records or documents of letters of referral issued under Article III Section D or records indicating the intention of OCR to move to Enforcement for Denial of Access under Section E of the 2003 version of the Case Resolution Manual of 2003 issued by the Office for Civil Rights within the United States Department of Education where the alleged violation was failure by a recipient to comply with the requirement of Title IX of equity in interscholastic competitive athletics; and Any public records or documents of letters issued under Article III Section 305 or public records or documents issued under Article IV section 402 or 403 of the 2005 version of the Case Resolution Manual of 2005 issued by the Office for Civil Rights within the United States Department of Education where the alleged violation was failure by a recipient to comply with the requirement of Title IX of equity in interscholastic competitive athletics; and Any public records or documents of letters issued under Article III Section 305 or Section 308 or Section 402 of the 2010 version of the Case Processing Manual of 2010 issued by the Office for Civil Rights within the United States Department of Education where the alleged violation was failure by a recipient to comply with the requirement of Title IX of equity in interscholastic competitive athletics.

Staff in OCR informed the FOIA Requester Services Center that after a search of their files, they were unable to locate any documents that were responsive to your request.

If you have any questions, please contact the FOIA Requester Services Center (FRSC) at 202-401-8365 or EDFOIAManager@ed.gov.

Sincerely,

Christie D. Swafford
